

OKLAHOMA SCHOOL OF SCIENCE & MATHEMATICS FOUNDATION

Presents the OGE Energy Faculty Award to...

"My father is one of the nicest and smartest people I know, and it is a great honor to work with him at OSSM."

*~ Professor Sara Bodenstein, MDiv, Duke University
(OSSM Class of 1994)*

FAVORITES:

BOOK: MOBY DICK

MOVIE: A RIVER RUNS THROUGH IT

CHARITY: TROUT UNLIMITED

INTERESTS:

FLY FISHING

PRE-COLUMBIAN AMERICAN HISTORY

HAS TAUGHT:

INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTER SCIENCE

COMPUTER ARCHITECTURE

DATA COMMUNICATIONS

PROBABILITY AND STATISTICS

COMPUTER GRAPHICS AND IMAGES

THE ART AND SCIENCE OF FLY FISHING

(AS A FINE ART COURSE)

ALSO SERVES AS:

COMPUTER NETWORK ADMINISTRATOR

RESIDENT FACULTY ADVISOR

MASTER MANIPULATOR OF ALL THINGS

WITH AN ON/OFF SWITCH

Professor Charles Dillard

*“People ask me why OSSM is so great. I respond
‘Best Students, Best Faculty, Best Administration’
– It’s the people there.”*

Professor Charles Dillard, MA

Thanks to the generosity of OGE Energy Corp. and other corporations, organizations, and individuals, OSSM is able to attract and retain faculty of Professor Dillard’s caliber who bring tremendous experience to enhance the education of OSSM students.

BIOGRAPHY

- Fondest childhood memories are of fishing, hunting, and camping among hills of western Nebraska
- Born in Ponca City, OK– Graduated Weatherford High School
- B.S. in Mathematics at Southwestern Oklahoma State
- M.A. in Government at Georgetown
- Twenty military years
 - HC-130 Pilot and Instructor Pilot for Air Force Rescue & Recovery Service
 - Five years in Pentagon under Secretary of Defense
 - Six years of operations research for Air Force and DOD
- 1991 joined OSSM to teach Computer Science
- He and wife of 43 years, Karol, share two grown children, Christopher and Sara, and one grandson, Johnathan